NARRATIVE:

Shawn Gerrard has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include battery, carrying a concealed weapon, possession of controlled substances, battery on a peace officer, obscene and threatening phone calls, assault, obstructing a peace officer, evading a peace officer, manufacturing controlled substances, and hit and run with property damage. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 5 year term for manufacturing controlled substances. Gerrard was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 17, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Gerrard qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
